Mike,

The attached document has three schedules, the first assumes it takes Oxitec 60 days to respond, the second assumes a 30 day response time, and the third assumes a 30 day response time and has a very tight schedule but is at least in the realistic ballpark.

Can u give me a sense of when you will have something for me to review— later today? Thursday?

I want to get something back to Rick this week.

Thanks
Bob
